NOUVELLE GENERATION CHAMBER ORCHESTRA – Composers' Competition

The Nouvelle Generation Chamber Orchestra (<http://www.orchestrenouvellegeneration.com>) is pleased to invite young and emerging composers of any nationality, under the age of 35, to submit a new composition on the theme of "Dances of the World"

The winning composition will be performed at the Orchestra's "Piazzolla Seasons and Dances of the World" concert, which will take place on January 24, 2015 at Salle Claude-Champagne in Montreal, Canada. The winning composer will receive a professional recording of their work in the weeks following the concert *.

Requirements of the Work

1. The composition should be 7 to 10 minutes long.
2. The instrumentation must be for string orchestra (4+4+3+2+1).
3. The work should address the required theme. The composition should contain elements of dance and may include fragments or combinations of one or more existing ethnic dance themes.

BASIC REQUIREMENTS and GUIDELINES:

- Unpublished and unperformed works only.
- Composers must be under age 35 as of January 1, 2015.
- Submissions are limited to one composition per composer.
- Two printed and bound copies of the score must be submitted. The score should be clearly marked with the name of composer, title of work, and duration.
- Submitted scores must include CD with recording (MP3, AIFF, MIDI or WAV).
- Please see and complete the application form below by including all relevant information.

- Submitted materials must be sent via post only. If a customs form is required, please indicate the package contains promotional materials only and is not commercial merchandise.
